

Lessons in Collaborative Adaptive Management (CAM) for Natural Resource Managers and Stakeholders – Follow-up Workshop

October 21, 2013, 10am to 4pm

Sierra Vista Presbyterian Church, 39696 Highway 41, Oakhurst, CA 93643 559- 683-6742

Desired Outcomes:

- To improve communication and facilitation skills between natural resource managers and stakeholders
- To learn effective Collaborative Adaptive Management and mutual learning techniques
- To increase the effectiveness and efficiency of the collaboration process

What	How	Time
I. Welcome and overview Meeting goals and agenda Introductions		10:00 – 10:15 15 minutes
II. Key tools in Collaborative Adaptive Management Review of most important tools Explore Scenarios provided by participants	Presentation and discussion	10:15 – 12:15 120 minutes
Catered lunch		12:15 – 12:45 30 minutes
III. Guest speakers – Craig Thomas from Sierra Forest Legacy and Larry Duysen from the Terra Bella Mill in Porterville Lessons learned from the Dinkey Creek Project	Presentation and Q&A	12:45 – 1:45 60 minutes

What	How	Time
Break		1:45 – 1:55 10 minutes
IV. Facilitation practice What has been working and what has not? Continue working through scenarios provided by participants	Group work	1:55 – 3:45 60 minutes
V. Wrap up: next steps and evaluation	Discussion	3:45 – 4:00 15 minutes